RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS

Respect for human rights is a fundamental value of CCI. We strive to respect and promote human rights in our relationships with our employees, suppliers, business partners, and the communities in which we operate. This Policy is guided by international human rights principles encompassed by the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, including those contained within the International Bill of Rights, the International Labor Organization's 1998 Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work, the United Nations Global Compact, and the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights.

This policy applies to Coca-Cola İçecek, the entities that we own, the entities in which we hold a majority interest and the facilities that we manage. CCI also expects and encourages its suppliers and business partners to uphold these principles and urges them to adopt similar policies within their own businesses.

We use due diligence as a means to identify and prevent human rights risks to people in our business and value chain. Where we have identified adverse human rights impacts resulting from or caused by our business activities, we are committed to provide for or cooperate in, their fair and equitable remediation. We seek to promote access to remediation where we are linked to or involved in those adverse impacts through our relationships with third parties.

The Human Rights Policy is overseen by CCI Executive Committee.

COMMUNITY AND STAKEHOLDER ENGAGEMENT

We recognize that we are part of the communities in which we operate. We engage with communities and people in those communities, including vulnerable and disadvantaged groups, on human rights matters that are important to them, through dialogue where they are heard, and their opinions are taken into account. We believe that local issues are most appropriately addressed at the local level. Where appropriate, we engage with a wide range of civil society and stakeholders on human rights issues related to our business.

DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

We value and advance the diversity and inclusion of the people with whom we work. We are committed to equal opportunity and the basis for recruitment, hiring, placement, development, training, compensation and advancement at CCI is qualifications, performance, skills and experience. Diversity in the workforce is essential for achieving our goals. Thus, we strive to attract, nurture and retain talent from diverse backgrounds and with tolerant outlooks.

Where employees are represented by a legally recognized union, we are committed to establishing a constructive dialogue with their freely chosen representatives. CCI is committed to bargaining in good faith with such representatives.
